Detroit Businesswoman Sharyn Steele Helps Bridge the Gap for Diversity in Forex Market Trading

Detroit, MI (1/13/2021) – Financial Resources Coach Sharyn Steele leads a growing online community of women who are eager to obtain economic freedom. As Founder of Business Girlfriends, she has partnered with Christopher Terry, CEO, at IM Mastery Academy and Dr. Chyna Bethley, CEO, at Rich University to introduce currency trading through the Foreign Exchange Market.

Steele has attained great success engaging groups about learning systems in decentralized financial education. “I am passionate about making the cryptocurrency market more inclusive and diverse,” says Steele. “Using a learned skillset and support system for navigating the traditionally male-dominated industry, women are excelling at every juncture in the Forex and digital currency space.”

“Our members are concerned about the future,” says Steele. “At Business Girlfriends, we provide information to help them secure seven streams of income.”

The organization has started a 90-day campaign to reach 500 women in need of repositioning themselves for change during 2021.

Steele frequently discusses with her network how partnering with Gregg Leakes, of BRAVO TV’s Real Housewives of Atlanta franchise has leveraged her ability to break barriers to speak in public forums about multiplying income and wealth opportunities for women and families.
