Orlando Entrepreneur Kendall T. Johnson Receives Woman of Influence Award

Orlando, FL (4/22/21) – Local businesswoman Kendall T. Johnson was selected as the Woman of Influence honoree during the Black Women Handling Business Awards, recently hosted by Gina Cotton, of I-Motivate Solutions; a coaching service helping women to recognize their full potential.

This prestigious award recognizes Johnson's work ethic, leadership, acts of service to clients and industry colleagues, stewardship, and humility. "Receiving this award was a tremendous surprise," states Kendall. "I am honored to be selected among many outstanding women in this state, and it's a joy to know that by fulfilling my life's purpose, I am making an impact on others."

Many entries were submitted as nominees for a platform of seven categories, making this an extremely competitive year for the event.
